Situated in a quiet street in Crestmead rests one of the most immaculate homes you'll ever come across. Every part of this home has been well thought about and designed to suit a family.

As you walk in the large front door, a new world opens up. Porcelain tiles seamlessly flowing from room to room and each bedroom with a warm welcoming lush carpet. You can turn right and you'll be taken through to the media room, family room and living areas. Or you can turn left and you will walk past the kids retreat and bedrooms past the large past bedroom. BUT all roads lead to the centre and heart of the home, which is the kitchen and family area.

Caesar stone benchtops and a 5 burner gas cooktop are just the start, and hidden behind the cabinetry is a large walk in pantry that only a true chef will appreciate.

It looks out onto the large back yard with room for a pool, and big enough to play a good game of back yard cricket.

From it's lighting, all the way up to the stepped architraves this has been the pride and
