Set within a modern, family-friendly estate is this bright and stylish home you'll be proud to call your own. You will live on a quiet street where the kids can play in the front yard or take a short walk to Buttuta Park for an afternoon spent exploring nature while all the shops and services you could need are within easy reach.

Inside, this home offers all the space, comfort and flexibility a family needs with a thoughtful layout that can grow and change as your needs do. There are four bedrooms and two bathrooms with a configuration that allows for multiple uses.

Solar panels, a two-car garage, a large laundry and plenty of storage throughout are just some of the extra features on offer when you call this home your own.
